Take Contract Review to the Next Level

Here's how much time you and your team could save by using eBrevia to review 2,000 documents related to a specific deal or project:

Using eBrevia

500_{hrs}

VS

Manual Review

1,000_{hrs}

That's valuable time you can put toward other billable work, use to reduce unbillable hours in flat-fee scenarios and market your firm's use of technology and innovation as a competitive advantage.

eBrevia uses industry-leading machine learning and natural language processing technology to extract data from documents with unprecedented speed and accuracy.

Here are just a few scenarios in which eBrevia can give your team a competitive advantage:

M&A AND TRANSACTIONAL WORK

Automate the diligence process on the buy or sell side by quickly reviewing large sets of contracts for problematic or missing provisions. Generate diligence reports in a variety of formats.

COMPLIANCE PROJECTS

Identify non-compliant contracts during GDPR repapering. Review contracts to comply with changes in law and regulations.

GENERAL CONTRACT MANAGEMENT

Track and report contract expiration dates, auto-renewal, and liabilities and obligations. Summarize NDA obligations across multiple types of contracts. Group contracts and their related documents for simultaneous review to get the most current terms extracted.

REAL ESTATE AND OTHER LEASES

Extract key operational and other data from lease documents and track ongoing amendments and renewals with ease.

IP MANAGEMENT

Identify licensed materials. Track service terms and expirations. Summarize rights and obligations.

VENDOR AND CUSTOMER MANAGEMENT

Quickly review MSAs, SOWs and NDAs to avoid auto-renewals on unused products/services and reduce costs. Discover multiple contracts within the same party and leverage data to negotiate better terms in bulk.

HUMAN RESOURCES

Summarize confidentiality and non-solicitation obligations. Compare employee agreements against standard form. Track salaries and benefits.
