CHALLENGE

Resolving negative experiences during financial reporting

Kodak has complex financial reporting and SEC filing requirements with 3 reportable segments and 10 principal manufacturing facilities worldwide. They are an industry-leader with superior products and responsive support, so they expect similar experiences from their providers.

A switch to another vendor and their software led to many unexpected challenges due to poor platform design, slow customer service, inconsistent EDGAR HTML conversions, and unacceptable turnaround times, XBRL tagging errors, clumsy collaboration support, and missing roll forward features.

The problems and limitations the Kodak team had to work-around increased SEC compliance risk and wasted many valuable hours.

SOLUTION

ActiveDisclosure for Financial Reporting & SEC Filing

Kodak returned to DFIN and ActiveDisclosure, experiencing a modernized platform their teams and users found intuitive, user-friendly and responsive. ActiveDisclosure helps Kodak streamline their financial reporting and SEC filing processes, with timely and accurate XBRL tagging maximizing efficiency. The Kodak team leans on DFIN's expert SEC guidance, accumulated through assisting 170K filings annually, and project managers to expand resources, save time and mitigate risk.
