CHALLENGE

Streamlining the IPO process

OneStream chose Wilson Sonsini, a tech-forward legal firm, to support its IPO, including the drafting and filing of SEC Form S-1. The company wanted to remain focused on IPO success by providing financial information that its attorneys would use to draft content and file documents.

Also, OneStream preferred Wilson Sonsini to focus on high-value IPO activities instead of resource-intensive support work like project management, document layout, content formatting, and XBRL tagging.

SOLUTION

Complete IPO solution including purpose-built software and expert support

OneStream, in collaboration with Wilson Sonsini and DFIN subject matter experts, used ActiveDisclosure financial reporting and SEC filing software to optimize IPO process efficiency.

ActiveDisclosure allowed OneStream to securely share financial and other information with Wilson Sonsini and its other advisors. Wilson Sonsini’s attorneys drafted the Form S-1 disclosure and assigned layout and formatting tasks to DFIN. Everything occurred using a secure, collaborative digital workflow within ActiveDisclosure, eliminating the traditional and inefficient process of emailing change requests back and forth.

INNOVATIVE AND COMPLETE DIGITAL SOLUTION
Experience online collaboration across the entire IPO team

RETAIN CONTROL WHILE GETTING CHANGES DONE
Save time with DFIN experts making and tracking changes

REMAIN FOCUSED ON ACHIEVING IPO SUCCESS
Accelerate the IPO process while minimizing expenses

ActiveDisclosure optimized the efficiency of our IPO and allowed our team to collaborate closely with Wilson Sonsini attorneys to draft the Form S-1 while maintaining strict confidentiality and security. DFIN's subject matter experts, including project managers and document editors, ensured we remained on schedule by providing guidance, recommendations and reminders.”
